

Emmanuel Kwamina Eduam is a Market Entry / Business Consultant. He is the Managing Director of K. Eduam Investments Ltd, an investment support and facilitation company based in Accra Ghana.

He has over 15 years work experiences in both Ghanaian business sectors and Abroad spanning across various sectors which includes Mining, Media, Education, Tourism and Hospitality, Oil & Gas, etc..

He holds an MBA in International Business Administration from the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science & Technology, Kumasi Ghana and also has a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree in Marketing Management from the Methodist University College of Ghana. He also has an Executive Certificate in Project Management from the African Centre for Capacity Building (AFCAB).

He currently serves as the Executive Director for Ghana Austria Business Association (GHABA) since 2014 and a Deputy Chief Operating officer For Trans Africa Railway Corporation Ltd. (TARC) Ghana.

