

MATTHEW KWABENA ADEYANJU PROFILE

Matthew is the TARC interim Chief Operating Officer (COO), He is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day administrative and operational functions which involves stakeholder management and quality, infrastructure, ICT and web services and environment, follows up of railway construction projects to assure compliance with technical specification. Over the past twenty years, he has worked in a variety professional capacities in the private sector. Matthew is an IT & Management Consultant and has MBA Action Learning Leadership Programme, Business School Netherlands, Galilee Institute, Israel (Dip SMEs: Entrepreneurship & Innovative Management), World Bank Global Partnership on Social Accountability E-learning course.

Matthew is the Director of Projects at Coastal Network Consortium Limited, Partnership and Membership Executive at Sekondi Takoradi Chamber of Commerce & Industry, has over 5 years of experience in the field of Environmental Consulting. With a demonstrated history of working with MSMEs and other stakeholders in the E-Waste management in Ghana. He has extensive experience handling projects and programmes and has served as Project Officer at the UCC Eco-Business and Policy Centre which was set up in July, 2015 under the Switch Africa Green (SAG) Project funded by European Union through the United Nation Environment Program (UNEP), United Nations Development Program (UNDP) and United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS). The goal was to promote green business and sustainable development especially for the development of Micro-Small and Medium-size Enterprises (MSMEs) in the e-waste sector. He is also currently a Senior Project Manager under E-Waste Management in Ghana (EMAGIN) project. The project aims to improve the management of e-waste in eight regions towards a Sustainable Consumption and Production (SCP) through an integrated multi-stakeholder approach.